FALL 2025 NEW ARRIVALS

Unmatched Durability

The Oxide Sherpa Lined Canvas Jacket is designed for life on the move, combining a relaxed fit with urban styling. Made from a durable Certified Cotton canvas, this jacket offers solid performance with plenty of practical features. The 100% GRS-Certified Polyester Sherpa fleece lining provides warmth and comfort, while the chest pockets with snaps and insulated handwarmer pockets add functional storage for your essentials. With its rugged design and multiple pockets, this jacket is perfect for urban commutes or weekend escapes, offering both style and practicality.

MSRP $190.00 (A)

DESIGNER COMMENTS

We created the Oxide Sherpa Lined Canvas Jacket to offer an insulated alternative for colder months, combining heavyweight cotton canvas with plush sherpa lining for comfort that lasts. With a clean silhouette and timeless materials, it delivers reliable warmth and easy styling whether layered over fleece or worn on its own. Designed with rugged durability and a utilitarian aesthetic, it's built for cool-season routines equally at home in industrial settings or laid-back weekends at the cabin.

Intelligent Weather Protection

The Pacifica Full Zip Jacket is a lightweight, full-zip shell designed to provide reliable protection in unpredictable conditions. Its water-repellent finish effectively shields against light rain and moisture, making it a dependable choice for variable weather. Engineered for mobility, it features articulated elbows and action shoulders to enhance flexibility, with a full-length front zipper that allows for quick and easy layering. Partial elasticized cuffs provide a secure fit that helps seal out the elements, while zippered hand pockets offer secure storage for essentials. Versatile and functional, this jacket is the ideal lightweight outer layer for navigating both urban landscapes and outdoor adventures.

MSRP $65.00 (A)

DESIGNER COMMENTS

To complete the Pacifica collection, we added a full-zip version of this jacket without the hood. The result is a lightweight shell designed for comfort, movement, and light protection. Its articulated fit and breathable mesh lining offer ease and airflow, while a water-repellent finish and zippered pockets keep it practical in changing conditions. Ideal for layering or wearing solo, it's built to be an easy grab-and-go outer layer for everyday use.
